

WHY HIRE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS FOR A JOB?

What's OPT?

OPT is a temporary employment authorization for international students who are currently in the U.S. on a student visa. It allows students to gain practical work experience in their field of study. OPT is available to students who are currently in the U.S. on a student visa. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows international students to work in the U.S. for a limited period of time. OPT is available to students who are currently in the U.S. on a student visa. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows international students to work in the U.S. for a limited period of time.

How long can a student work on OPT?

12 months. For students in STEM fields, it can be extended to 36 months. OPT is available to students who are currently in the U.S. on a student visa. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows international students to work in the U.S. for a limited period of time.

What happens after OPT ends for a student?

After OPT ends, a student must either find a job that sponsors an H-1B visa, return to their home country, or re-enter the U.S. as a student. OPT is available to students who are currently in the U.S. on a student visa. It is a temporary employment authorization that allows international students to work in the U.S. for a limited period of time.