

FACULTY Spontaneous or organized, agreement that these interactions provide a valuable age. If, indeed, this foundation is weakening, we hope out ways to strengthen it again.

eral faculty who had contacted us, and on the basis of the Dean of the Faculty deeper, broader se requests revolved around the anti harassment e track lines. As we reported to the Committee of ch resulted from these requests could have been much the faculty having the opportunity to pose questions had which led to the discussion at the Committee of tenure track lines, we recognize that there have been ed issues, including those held in recent weeks o acknowledge that Chairs and Directors have had an n to their respective Departments and programs. We munication has functioned. Of course, we also of the Dean to make decisions about the deployment ocess would have benefited and still would benefit before any serious changes in direction are adopted.

elines for TT Proposals" (from an email dated 4/23) as

Ⓣ

