

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR ALIEN EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATION

This notice is provided because of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the following tenure-track position: Assistant Professor (Microeconomics) in the Economics Department.

The following is a statement of the job duties and requirements:

Teach introductory and upper-level undergraduate courses in Economics, including but not limited to microeconomics and statistics, including behavioral economics and experimental economics. Preferred fields are experimental and behavioral economics; preferred secondary field is environmental economics. Also expected to maintain an active research agenda that leads to publications, and provide service to the department and the college. Ph.D. degree in Economics, or completed all the Ph.D. degree requirements except submission of the dissertation. Position is F/T, M-F.

Candidates should submit a cover letter explaining their ability to contribute in the areas described above,